

Mena Production Presents

Angel Mena

is a seasoned singer who's been around in the industry for a quite some time. He is a good example of style blending from Mercado Negro to his latest duet with Canadian diva Shania Twain. His upcoming first solo album will be a delightful cruise through Latin music...

Angel Mena has always been very confident on stage and knows very well how to move people with songs and capture the emotion of his audience...

Angel Mena perpetuates the Latin culture and attitude from his native nation, Chilli, even though he moved to Switzerland a few years back.

He starts training his vocal talent as a kid and during his teenage years. His achievements give him the opportunity to join the band Mercado Negro in 2000 as lead and backing singer. The popular band goes on tour with the likes of Celia Cruz, Tito Neves, El Carino, Rey Sepulveda and Chéo Feliciano.

Having gained a lot of experience during his four years with Mercado Negro, Angel Mena plays a very important role in Solo Dos album Barrio Story (Universal Music, 2005).

Since the summer of 2005 Angel Mena is working with a team of producers to release his first solo album. He wants his Album to be very rich in styles. His deep expressiveness builds up in his Latin pop songs and ballads. His experience as an entertainer is revealed in his reggaeton and salsa songs. Angel Mena doesn't want to be stuck with any Latin sub genre.

In early 2006 a unique opportunity to produce a Latin version of Shania Twain's "Ka-ching" drives Angel and the whole production team real excited! His pop-reggaeton version of this single will most definitely be a smash hit according to several listeners. Shania's vocal blend in a Latin song is real transparent!

Angel Mena is about to bring a refreshing breath in the pop Latin market. No surprise several leading Major labels are already very interested by this rising artist...
